

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

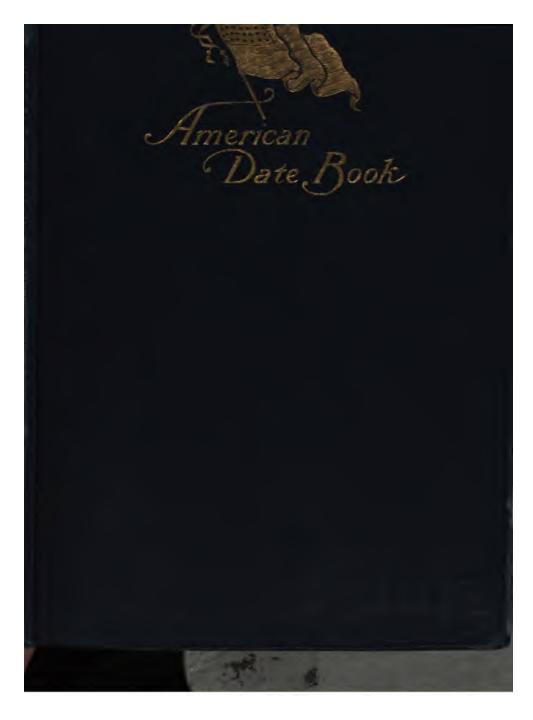

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

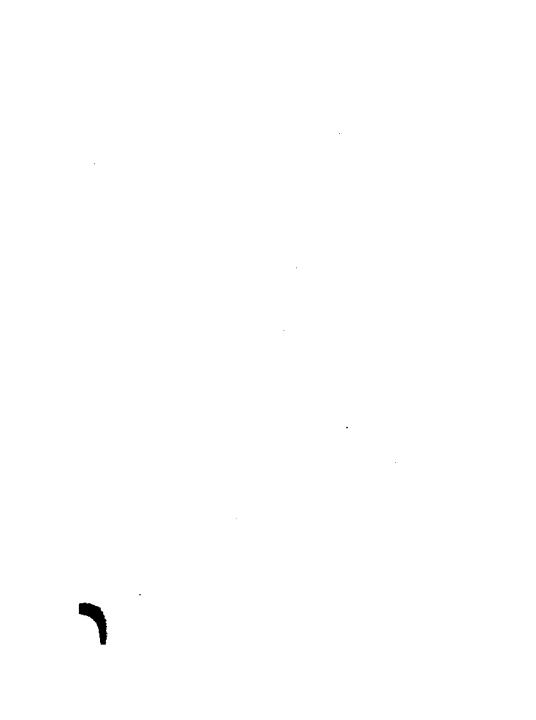

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BATTLES ON LAND.

Chronological arrangement except that the battles of the "Civil War Period" have an alphabetical arrangement for each year. Battles in which one of the hostile parties was on land and the other on water are included under this title, but, in such case, the fact is indicated. The following periods are given: "Colonial Period," "Revolutionary Period," "War of 1812 Period," "Mexican War Period," "Civil War Period," and "Spanish War Period." Some of these periods include conflicts which were not a part of the general war then existing; they are readily distinguished.

For the "Colonial Period" a battle can generally be assigned to the war of which, if any, it was a part by comparing the entry thereof with the names and dates of the "Colonial Wars" under the title "Wars." A conflict occurring since the beginning of the Revolutionary War, and not a part of that war, or of the "War of 1812," the Mexican War, the Civil War, or the Spanish War, can generally be assigned to the war of which, if any, it was a part, by comparing the entry thereof with the names and dates of the "Federal Wars" under the title "Wars."

NEGRO CITIZENSHIP. A free negro whose ancestors were brought here from Africa and sold as slaves is not a citizen under the Constitution. Scott vs. Sandford—"Dred Scott case"—19 U. S., 393 (Mar. 6, 1857).

THE UNION. "The Constitution, in all of its provisions, looks to an indestructible Union, composed of indestructible States." Texas vs. White, 7 Wallace, 725 (1868).

STATE POWERS. The 14th amendment does not take from the States, police powers reserved to them at the adoption of the Constitution. Slaughter House cases, 16 Wallace, 36 (1872).

TRADEMARKS. The United States has not the power to protect trademarks broadly and unconditionally. Trademark cases, 100 U.S., 82 (Nov. 17, 1879).

STATE DEBTS. A state law, taking from its officer the power to carry out its contract, embodied in its bonds, is unconstitutional. The officer cannot be forced to act in a case to which the state is not a party. La. vs. Jumel, 2 Sup. Ct. Rep., 128 (Mar. 5, 1883).

LEGAL TENDERS. Legal tender notes issued by the United States are constitutional. Legal Tender cases, 110 U.S., 421 (Mar. 3, 1884).

Polygamy. The Act of Congress of March 22, 1882, disfranchising polygamists in the territories is constitutional and not ex post facto or retroactive. Murphy vs. Ramsey, 5 Sup. Ct. Rep., 747 (Mar. 23, 1885).

OLEOMARGARINE. The Pennsylvania law of May 24, 1885, prohibiting manufacture of counterfeit butter and cheese is valid. Powell vs. Penn. 8, Sup. Ct. Rep., 999

(April 9, 1888).

CHINESE EXCLUSION ACT. The act of October 1, 1888, is valid even though it violates existing treaties. Chae Chan Ping vs. U. S., 9 Sup. Ct. Rep., 623 (May 13, 1889).

ORIGINAL PACKAGES. A state has no power to prevent liquor being brought into it from another state; nor to prevent its sale, in the original package, by a non-resident. Bowman vs. C. & N. W. Ry. Co., 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 689 (Mar. 19, 1888), Leisy vs. Hardin, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep. 681 (April 28, 1890).

INCOME TAXES, ETC., United States taxes on real estate and on personal property and its income are unconstitutional. Pollock vs. Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., 15 Sup. Ct. Rep., 912 (May 20, 1895).

INTERSTATE TRAFFIC. The act which voids vicious transportation contracts is valid. U. S. vs. Joint Traffic Assoc.,

19 Supreme Ct. Rep., 25 (Oct. 24, 1898).

Cuba. Though under the control of the United States per act of June 6, 1900, Cuba is foreign country for extradition purposes. Neeley vs. Hinkel, 21 Sup. Ct. Rep., 302

(Jan. 24, 1901).

Porto Rico. Porto Rico, by its cession, became territory appurtenant to, but not a part of, the United States, within the meaning of the Constitution; the imposition of duties by Congress was constitutional. Downes vs. Bidwell, 21 Sup. Ct. Rep., 770 (May £7, 1901). Porto Rico was a "foreign country," under United States revenue law, before its cession, and while under United States military occupation; at such time the war power of the United States might impose duties on importations, but not after the cession. Dooley vs. U. S., 21 Sup. Ct. Rep., 762 (May 27, 1901). Porto Rico is not "foreign country" within the meaning of the Dingley tariff act of July 24, 1897, imposing duties upon articles "imported from foreign countries." De Lima vs. Bidwell, 21 Sup. Ct. Rep., 743 (May 27, 1901).

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS. Duties cannot be collected on goods passing between the United States (on the continent of North America) and these islands. (No statute law, in the matter, existed.) The Diamond Rings, 22 Sup. Ct. Rep., 59 (Dec. 2, 1901).
